Check the Covid restrictions before you go

Currently, there are no restrictions on coming to Croatia. However, it is your own responsibility to check the updated information before you start travelling, as the Covid situation may change. You can get the updates here: <https://entercroatia.mup.hr/>

How to get to Split and Omiš

In line with the Green event, please, consider the type of transportation with low impact on environment from your home to Split.

By plane to Split:

When buying the air ticket, make sure that the ticket will allow you to get refunded in case you will not be able to fly due to medical reasons

By train or bus to Split:

Split is well accessible by bus and train. And then from Split to Omiš it is 40 minutes by bus.

Excursions

Do you want to visit Diocletian's Palace in Split and other beautiful places in Dalmatia?

Take advantage of opportunities that Croatia offers and make your stay one day or weekend longer (after the Regional Meeting and Training) to go for excursions. We will give you some recommendations in advance.

Please, note that excursions are not part of the RM program. Fee for excursion is not included in the RM participation fee.

Financial Support

RCO provides a financial support to partially cover the travel costs of coordinators who attend the Regional Meeting. Please read carefully the Guidelines for Financial Support that were distributed to coordinators along with this Infosheet or contact directly the RCO on the email listed below.
